Goat Breaks Up Dance of Children in Newport

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HEMALE.

When the Casino are frequent events, but never before until yesterday was there a goat show. It took place during the young people's dancing party. Mrs. Henry G. Gray gave the show, and there was only one goat. She brought the goat up the avenue drawing a buckboard with two youngsters thereon. Steering the animal through the sedate passageway and past the venerable superintendent, Barrett, she went into the grounds with her outfit. The children preferred the outfit to dancing, and Dr. A. Hamilton Rice took photographs of Mrs. Gray and her goat. Mrs. Gray formerly was Miss Edith Deacon.
